EdelGive has worked on 14 projects across these areas and 27 Financial Literacy sessions this year.

Some of our key capacity building initiatives were:

- Under the Genpact Social Innovation Fellowship (GSIF) programme, six sigma experts from Genpact along with social sector experts introduce process re-engineering within non-profit organisations. In its fourth and final year, 35 fellows have been enabled to work with 25 NGOs in the areas of employability and skilling, education, and women empowerment.

- For our NGO partners Jan Sahas Social Development Society and Association For Advocacy and Legal Initiatives (AALI), Team Sankalp has developed a first-of-its-kind mobile and webbased application that will automate the current-case data capture – recording and reporting processes for survivors of sexual and domestic violence, and trafficking. BUILDING CREDIBLE PARTNERSHIPS

Our unique philanthropic model places us at the centre of grant-making. In addition to providing grants to our partners, we also invest our energies in sourcing and managing funding from other institutional, individual and corporate partners, at zero cost. This assists both partners - the NGOs and funders - to diversify their outreach and impact.

Our two existing coalitions, The Collaborators for Transforming Education, and The Coalition for Women Empowerment (CWE) are being executed as planned and have reached over 1.3 million beneficiaries.

- The Collaborators for Transforming Education Based on the success of the coalition, this year Collaborators expanded from Gadchiroli, Parbhani, Amravati and Nandurbar to three more districts of Satara, Solapur and Hingoli, in Maharashtra. Furthermore, the Government of Maharashtra signed an MoU with EdelGive Foundation for the next 5 years with the provision to expand to all districts of Maharashtra.
- The Coalition for Women Empowerment The partnership with Ford Foundation, in addition to significant funding, brought crucial knowledge from their rights-based work to the coalition. This has enabled a common platform for NGOs to share from each other's work (cross visits and meetings) and engineered mini collaborations. We are also very excited that the Chintu Gudiya Foundation, a US-based family foundation, renowned for its technology for development work, has joined us as a partner in the CWE. This year, The Influencers, our collective of individual influential voices, completed one year of its official launch with 15 members, hosting eminent names in business, arts, media, public service and philanthropy, who have come together to leverage their strengths for the cause of women empowerment.
- The learnings from both our ongoing coalitions encouraged and enabled EdelGive Foundation to become a core partner to the India Climate Collaborative, a first of its kind initiative bringing together India's top philanthropies to address the increasing and pressing climate crisis in India. EdelGive Foundation brings years of rich experience of working with organisations with a deep penetration at the grassroots to ICC's enriching technical expertise. With the combined holistic understanding of the development space from a climate lens, the partnership aims to work towards promoting ecological balance through a co-benefits approach.

KNOWLEDGE HUB

We actively engaged in a range of exciting partnerships, with an emphasis on emerging as an organisation focused on knowledge creation for the sector.

- An analysis of India's Most Generous Philanthropists EdelGive partnered with Hurun Report India in the making of the EdelGive Hurun India Philanthropy List and Report 2019 a list of the top 100 philanthropists across India.
- A behavioural science lens: EdelGive also partnered with Final Mile to develop a study titled 'Project Kriya', which showcases the ideal journey of a survivor of violence, to her 'New Normal'.
- A State-specific assessment of philanthropy: We evangelized our Philanthropy for Impact State Paper series into a microsite as a compilation of the current landscape of trends, gaps and opportunities, best practices, and recommendations around state development profiles

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP AND MEDIA

EdelGive is present on governing boards of global agencies and have a presence on discussion platforms like Asian Venture Philanthropy Network (AVPN) and Empower Families for Innovative Philanthropy (ERFIP). In addition to this, we host roundtables, discussion forums and talks to build a repository of information, generate opinion and understanding of the sector, and influence philanthropic action. EdelGive participated in several conversations on 'philanthropy' on platforms such as Indiaspora, BBC, IIT-IIT, Goalkeepers, Sankalp Global Forum and UNESCO. We also conducted various convenings with other prestigious organisations such as India Climate Collaborative, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Northeastern University and Tata Trusts. We also hosted At The Same Table™ (ATST), an equal platform for free and frank discussion on issues and ideas that collectively concern the funding community on: Using Technology to Build Grassroots Leadership for Women Empowerment; and on Capacity Building as a Critical Enabler of Social Development Programmes.

We were also present on key panel discussions across media channels this year, including reputed platforms such as BBC World News, CNBC TV-18, ET Now, Zee Business, Doordarshan, Business India, Economic Times, and India Development Review.

EDGE 2019

Built around the theme The Power of One, our annual conference EDGE was a day of thought, reflection, and learning. It was a celebration of the first push of the needle, the first seed of an idea. The day was structured into five broad areas of discussion, Entrepreneurship, Vision, Audacity in Belief, Representing the Unrepresented and Emotions Driving Change. Each packed with inspirational stories of individuals, organizations, and movements. Apart from speakers and panel discussions, the EDGE Talks platform showcased EdelGive's NGO partners as they shared their journeys of change.
