1. Background

- 1.1. Edelweiss Financial Services Limited (Company/Edelweiss) and all its group entities collectively referred to as Edelweiss Group (Edelweiss Group) are committed to establishing and maintaining a congenial, safe, and fair work environment that is free from discrimination, intimidation and sexual harassment of women at workplace. This policy of Edelweiss Group on prevention of sexual harassment of women at workplace viz. Policy on Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment at Workplace (POSH Policy) is formulated on the aforesaid principles which are part of the cornerstone of the Edelweiss Group's philosophy and to ensure compliance with The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 (Act) and the Rules notified thereunder along with all amendments from time to time. It is the responsibility of all those connected with Edelweiss Group to comply with the POSH Policy.

2. Applicability

- 2.1. The POSH Policy extends to all employees of Edelweiss Group and is deemed to be incorporated in the service conditions of all employees and extends to all the premises of the Edelweiss Group, including branches and other units directly or indirectly controlled by the Edelweiss Group. The procedure described in this POSH Policy apply to all complaints of sexual harassment made by an Aggrieved Person (defined below) provided the sexual harassment has taken place at Workplace (defined below) or in the course of official duties.

3. Acts or Behaviour that constitutes Sexual Harassment

- 3.1. Sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome* acts or behaviour (whether directly or by implication) namely:
 - physical contact and advances
 - a demand or request for sexual favours
 - making sexually coloured remarks
 - showing pornography or
 - any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.

The inappropriate behaviours listed above may be committed either verbally or in written form via letters, video calls/audio calls, phone calls, texts, e-mails, on any social media platform or through any other electronic communication.

- 3.2. The following circumstances, amongst others, which if they occur or are present in relation to or connected with any act or behaviour of sexual harassment, may amount to sexual harassment:
- implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment
 - implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in employment
 - implied or explicit threat about present or future employment status
 - interference with work or creation of an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment; or
 - Humiliating treatment likely to affect the health and / or safety of the Aggrieved Women / Person
- 3.3. It is pertinent to clarify that workplace behaviour such as enumerated below may not constitute sexual harassment (the list is illustrative and not exhaustive):
- a) following-up on work absences
 - b) requiring performance to job standards
 - c) the normal exercise of management rights
 - d) work-related stress e.g., meeting deadlines or quality standards; or
 - e) constructive feedback about the work mistakes and not the person.
- 3.4. Every Aggrieved Woman can directly approach the person perceived to be harassing her and request such behaviour be immediately stopped, before formally making a complaint of sexual harassment
- 3.5. *Unwelcome denotes unwanted, undesirable, and uninvited behaviour that makes a person feel uncomfortable. A behaviour or a gesture, while may be acceptable to one person, need not be acceptable and comfortable for another person. Intention of the person and/or motive behind the behaviour will not be considered when it comes to classifying/naming behaviour as sexual harassment. Sexual harassment cannot be justified and defended from this point of view. If the concerned person was offended, humiliated, or intimidated by the behaviour of the person or even felt so, it will fall within the purview of the POSH Policy. It is important how the concerned person perceives/understands /interprets the behaviour. Impact and effect of the sexual harassment on the concerned person is important and supersedes intent in this case.

Sexual harassment can happen both in direct and / or indirect manner. It could, either be asking something in exchange (quid pro quo) and / or difficult, intimidating, and offensive work environment (hostile work environment) that interferes with the work and performance of the Aggrieved Women at work. It could be either before and / or after the incident of sexual harassment. The behaviour may, either be a single incident or a series of unwelcome behaviour.
