Virtual Spaces for Support

experience and challenges in providing support to women and families affected by pandemics. She shares her perspective on the impact of the pandemic on lives and highlights the need for virtual spaces to provide support to vulnerable communities. Read the full story here.

The work of Grassroots Leadership has been instrumental in providing support to women and families during the pandemic. They have curated two types of kits—Medical/Sanitary Kit and Ration Kit. The ration was distributed to the needy families of 250 young urban women and the hygiene kit has been distributed among 500 women.

Shaheen has been conducting awareness programs on COVID-19 by circulating flyers and pamphlets in slums, camps, villages, etc. Provided PPE kits to 6,500 sanitation workers. Counselling and emergency support, virtually. It has provided 2,317 masks, 1,967 gloves and 416 sanitizer bottles.

Virtual Spaces for Support

Conducted Consequences of COVID-19 Crisis: Implications for the Young

While the vulnerabilities of young age groups like the ability to work and provide for their families, the education sector is affected by the lockdown resulting in school closures.

Leading Response through the Crisis minority and transgender community, sex workers, single women, daily wage labourers, etc. Provided PPE kits to 6,500 sanitation workers. Counselling and emergency support, virtually. It has provided 2,317 masks, 1,967 gloves and 416 sanitizer bottles.

Enabling Awareness of Employment Opportunities: Jon Sahas

The Central Government has launched the 'Kalyan Rojgar Abhiyaan' campaign. To know more click here.