

Shaheen Women's Resource and Welfare Association

Shaheen Women's Resource and Welfare Association is based out of Old City of Hyderabad committed to the cause of women's rights and communal harmony. It was established in the year 2002 with an aim to work with women and children from the most orthodox and backward communities, such that they are able to challenge their social and economic barriers in their environment. It engages with women across age groups ranging from adolescents to middle-aged women helping them break social barriers, gain control over economic resources and exercise leadership at multiple levels. Shaheen is also uniquely positioned to simultaneously support three backward minority communities including Muslims, Dalits and Other Backward Classes OBCs.

- 900 adolescent girls and women were trained on social and reproductive issues.
- Supported 8,551 girls and women with vocational programs
- Over 632 girls saved from rescued from becoming victims of child marriage

Shaheen Women's Resource and Welfare Association

EdelGive Foundation is supporting Shaheen in adopting an integrated approach to their community-based development programmes for socio-economic empowerment of marginalised girls and women. The goal of the programme is to reduce vulnerabilities of women victims of violence by empowering them with skills to earn their livelihood, become economically independent and escape the cycle of violence.
